CITY NEWS.

Colonel Marc Mundy, Commandant of this Post, has rooms at the Louisville Hotel, where strangers going South, arriving after office hours, and entitled to passes, may obtain them at seven o'clock A. M., in time to take the morning trains. No passes, however, will be given by the Commandant of the Post at his hotel to others than those arriving after office hours.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Friday, June 5.—The Court met as usual this morning, with his Honor G. W. Johnston presiding. The first case presented was—

Martha Magill, for drunkenness and being disorderly in her conduct. Martha is good-looking, but will use tangle-foot too freely, and when she does, she is vulgar and low in her demeanor. She was sent up for sixty days in default of $100 bail. She has spent at least one-third of her time in the workshop.

Mary Buckley was drunk as usual, but claimed that it was the same old drunk; but not giving a good account of herself, she was sent up to her old home for sixty days, in default of $100 bail.

Matilda Salisbury was back again this morning. She stated that she went out to get a dram, and the barkeeper mixed her drink, and she could not stand it. The policemen all think that when she sings a song or dances on the street that she is drunk, but it is not so, for she had allowed herself to only thirteen drunks per day and night. She went out to her domicil for sixty days, in default of $100 bail.

Crawford Binney, an old soldier, was drunk and breaking in the doors of the citizens up town. He said they had no business to lock the front door on him; $50 for twelve months; went to workshop.

A negro girl belonging to Col. English stole about $40 from the man who hired her. The owner took charge of her.

A peace officer by W. H. Cray vs. W. K. Jones, which was continued. Several more assault warrants were tried of great importance.

James Hickey was found drunk on Market street. As this was the first time, he was let off.

We noticed on the street a man, his wife and sister-in-law, with two children, altogether, presenting a pitiable appearance. The man stated that he was from Taylor county—had walked most of the distance to this city, and was compelled to leave home on account of the rascally treatment he had received from guerrillas; and they doubtless would have killed him on account of his Union sentiments were it not for the fact that he had but one half his left leg; his right foot was cut off, his right hand had been cut in two, injured, he had received in the Mexican war while a common soldier fighting the battles of our common country. This unfortunate looking little group were wandering about the streets—lost as it were—not knowing where to sleep at night, or where to obtain a meal's victuals. This is another life-like portrait of the fruits of secession.

HORTICULTURAL.—We hope our lady friends and the friends of the ladies will remember that the exhibition of the Horticultural Society promises to be something fine this morning. You will be fully compensated for your trouble if you step in and examine the luxuriant appearance of the table richly freighted with samples of all the delicacies of the season. Go, and you will say you enjoyed your visit very much indeed, you have a home for strawberries, cherries, &c., and show us the pretty girl that does at love them.

A NEW MILITARY PRISON.—The steamer J. B. Ford, which was recently purchased by the government, is now being fitted up as a floating military prison, for the reception of those arrested for openly expressing sympathy with the rebellion or in any other way aiding the cause of secession. The prison will be completed in a few days, and will be prepared for the reception of female as well as masculine traitors—the upper rooms being devoted to the ladies and the lower ones to the men.

We learn that there are at present in the city quite a number of the widows whose husbands have fought, bled and died for our country's cause, leaving their loved ones in destitute circumstances. Cannot something be done by the authorities by which the wants of these poor widows may be speedily alleviated—homes provided for them, employment given them? Something can be done for them if the right measures be taken.

There is a very common nuisance committed in our theaters every night. It is that of persons disturbing the audience by getting up and running out as soon as the curtain drops. This is mostly unnecessary, and should be avoided as much as possible.

THE TABLEAUX.—Such has been the desire of the public to have a repetition of the tableau, given a few nights since, that it has been determined to accede to the wish, and the repetition will take place some evening next week.

Gov. Robinson and W. K. Thomas each offer a reward of $300 for the apprehension and delivery of Chas. Rogers and John W. Buckley, the two thieves who broke jail in this city several days ago and escaped.

Capt. Tidings, of the Twenty-eighth Kentucky regiment, arrived here with his company last Sunday evening. The object of his visit, we learn, is to obtain recruits and horses for the regiment.

Wm. Gray, who was arrested sometime ago and released by the military authorities upon taking the oath and giving bond, was arrested yesterday and incarcerated in the military prison.

POOLS.—We are requested to announce to the sporting fraternity that Messrs. Fariss and Allfriend will sell pools for the races at Woodlawn every morning and evening at the Gulf House; also, daily upon the course.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. Berj. B. Parsons, of Illinois, will preach at the Walnut Street Methodist Church on Sunday, both in the morning and the evening.

The train on the Jeffersonville Railroad was detained yesterday an hour and a half on account of hauling some troops.

Eight hundred soldiers who have been exchanged were sent to their regiments in Gen. Rosecrans's army yesterday.

There is a big lot of exchanged Federal soldiers at barracks No. 1, awaiting transportation to their regiments.

We are indebted to Messrs. Ehrick & Palmer for Cincinnati papers in advance of the mafs.

See notice of tobacco twisters in our advertising columns this morning.

"E. L. H." has our thanks for favors. Go on with your good work.

No prisoners were brought up on the Nashville train last evening.

For list of letters see fourth page.

INQUIRIES Nos. 116 and 117.—Held June 3, 1863, on Sixth, between Main and Water streets, on the bodies of Patrick Welsh and John Maher, who were killed by the fall of the building at that place on the evening of the 21st inst. The investigation resulted in the following: Verdict.—That the said Patrick Welsh and John Maher came to their deaths from the falling of a building occupied and used as a warehouse by the United States government; and that the officer in charge of the building should be censured for having placed such an unreasonable weight on the second floor of the building." Welsh received the following woman: Right arm broken, right ankle dislocated, end of the large bone of the leg protruding through the wound, and left leg broken below the knee. He was taken alive about half past 6 o'clock, and died at ten minutes to 8 o'clock. Maher received a severe wound on the left temple, fracturing the skull. He was dead when taken out. Welsh leaves a wife and five small children in very destitute circumstances. Maher has no family.

JAS. C. GILL, Coroner.

WOOD'S THEATER.—One of the most grand and beautiful spectacles that we have ever had the pleasure of witnessing was the large and fashionable audience congregated at Wood's theater last evening. All the elite and fashion of the city were present, to say nothing of the youth and beauty; indeed, we might say it was one of the most variegated and picturesque-looking audiences that we have ever seen. "Julius Cesar" was produced by only Wallack and Davenport, assisted by Mrs. Farren, can produce it—powerfully expressive in every part, such as the immortal Shakespeare would have introduced upon the stage. Could the illustrious author have been in the audience last night, he would have applauded Mrs. Farren, smiled his approval at Miss Ada Gray, bowed to Mrs. Goldie, and exclaimed "Well done, Wallack!" "Bravo, Davenport!" To-night "Richard III" will be produced. Persons wishing to take ladies had better engage seats at the box office to-day.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the Clerk of the County Court during the week ending June 5th, 1863:

Geo. Thompson and Mary Jane Cavins. Bernhard Liedman and Caroline Meier. Bernhard Liedman and Mary Luby. Daniel Quinlan and Mary Luby. T. B. Barbour and Laura Allison. Wm. H. Hinchley and Mary Lander. Marquis Bingham and Virginia Johnson. Adam Arnold and Martha James. John W. and Mary Dinsmore. Rev. B. M. Wickard and Eliza Thornton Rogers. Dorsey Young and Wren Ann Clayton. Jas. Fagenbush and Mahala Cox. John McGrath and Hannah Quill. George L. and Mary L. Link. Charles Link and Barbara Mongold. Jacob Yoher and Catherine Seifer.

Report of fires and alarms for the month of May, 1863:

May 5th—Field's stable, Sixth street, between Market and Jefferson; loss trifling.

May 10th—Thomas Williams & Co., Market street, between Third and Fourth; loss trifling.

May 12th—Mrs. Walker's cottage, in Mather's Alley; loss $400; insurance none.

May 16th—Miller, Moore, & Co., foundry on Green street, between Eighth and Ninth; loss $50; insurance none.

M. J. PAUL, Chief Engineer Louisville Fire Department.

FULLER'S THEATER.—Mr. Macaulay's benefit at the theater last night was a very fine one—a compliment paid him by his many friends and admirers in the city. To-night Mr. Neale will play in the "Corsican Brothers," and as William, in the drama of "Bacchus."

THE POLIOSOMA.—This excellent panorama of the war will be exhibited this evening for the last time. It has been visited during the past week by very large and fashionable audiences, and we expect it will be crowded-to-night, as it will be unsurpassed for the last time in this city.

SUNK.—The steamer Advance sank just below Hustonville, in the Wabash river, on Monday evening. She had eight hundred sacks of grain on board, with some other freight, which is nearly a total loss. The ruin will be raised.

THE ruins of the Government warehouse which fell on Sixth street have been removed. Only three bodies were found in the ruins.

There is a big lot of exchanged Federal soldiers at barracks No. 1, awaiting transportation to their regiments.

See notice of tobacco twisters in our advertising columns this morning.

COST OF REFUSING TO TAKE OUT LICENSE UNDER THE EXCISE LAW.—We understand that some of the parties who refused to take out a ritual liquor license, in Cincinnati, and appealed to the courts for redress, have been fined three times the amount of the license and costs. The license costs twenty dollars, and the judgment against the parties was eighty-three dollars. A physician in Jefferson county, Indiana, who refused to sign an application for license, and permitted the master to be taken to the District Court at Indianapolis, by the Collector, has been obliged to pay fifty-eight dollars instead of the original cost. The physician who had charge of it, was paroled, and allowed to return to the city. In the case was a large sum of money, amounting to about $4,000, belonging to Mr. A. Bland, the banker of this city, who has brought suit against the Adams Express Co., which contained a large amount of money. Mr. Carr, the messenger who had charge of it, was paroled, and allowed to return to the city. In the case was a large sum of money, amounting to about $4,000, belonging to Mr. A.
